The district schedule is now complete after Friday's games, meaning who's seeded where for the first postseason tournament in now known.

The District 9AAA Tournament begins on Feb. 14 with the top four seeds play host to games. The semifinals and finals will be held at Station Camp.

The girls begin Feb. 14 with the semifinals held Feb. 16. The girls' consolation final and title game are scheduled for Feb. 18. The boys begin Feb. 15 with the higher seeds hosting, move on to the semifinals on Feb. 16, and the consolation final and title game are slated for Feb. 19.

The four semifinalists all move on to the Region 5AAA Tournament. The region tourney pits the top four teams from District 9AAA against the top four teams from the District 10AAA Tournament. Beech plays host to the region semifinals and finals after the higher seeds host the opening-round games.

The top two teams advance out of the region and onto a sectional game. The sectional winners move on to the TSSAA tournament at MTSU's Murphy Center.

A number of area teams have non-district games left on the regular season schedule for Monday and Tuesday before the 9AAA tourney begins. Station Camp plays host to Macon County on Monday night. Hendersonville is at Goodpasture.
